

PRIVACY NOTICE

AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDING AT CONFERENCES (FOR SPEAKERS)

This privacy notice is addressed to individuals (speakers at conferences and other similar events) whose personal data are processed by the Office of the Seimas with a view to making video and audio recordings of conferences and other similar events (e.g. making a video recording of a conference that is broadcast live).

DATA CONTROLLER
(Who processes your data?)

OFFICE OF THE SEIMAS OF THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA, REGISTRATION NUMBER 188605295

Data Protection Officer of the Office of the Seimas
E-mail: dap@lrs.lt, postal address: Gedimino pr. 53, LT-01109 Vilnius, Lithuania
Addressee: Data Protection Officer of the Office of the Seimas

PURPOSE
(Why do we use your data?)

Your personal data will be processed in order to enable the widest possible range of interested individuals, who do not have the opportunity to participate in a conference or a similar event, to have access to the content of the conference and obtain the necessary knowledge in a particular field by observing remotely a live broadcast of the conference or a video recording of the conference at a time of their convenience.

For this purpose, the organisers of the event will upload the video recordings on their websites and social media accounts with unrestricted access, i.e. the video recordings will be made publicly available (not limited to a specific group of people) so that anyone interested in the content being made available could have access to it.

CONDITION FOR LAWFUL PROCESSING
(On what basis do we process your data?)

Your personal data will be processed after having obtained your consent (Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)).

PERSONAL DATA
(What data do we process?)

GENERAL DATA

Personal identification data: name and surname.
Other data: facial and voice data, data on professional activity, and other data provided during your presentation.

SOURCE OF DATA (Where do we get your data from?)

Personal data will be obtained directly from you.

ACCESS TO DATA
(Who will have access to your data?)

DATA RECIPIENTS (third parties)

The video and audio recordings of a conference or a similar event will be made available on the websites of the event organisers (the Seimas, the Office of the Seimas and other co-organisers of the event) and on their social media accounts with unrestricted access, i.e. the recordings will be made publicly available (not limited to a specific group of people).

DATA PROCESSORS (insofar as they provide specific services to the Office of the Seimas)

Information technology companies that process data to ensure the development, improvement and maintenance of information systems.

THIRD COUNTRIES (all non-EU Member States and non-EEA States)

Provision of personal data to third countries is not intended.

STORAGE PERIOD
(How long will we store your data?)

Please be informed that your personal data will be stored until the content of this conference is relevant or until any other point in time agreed with you. In any case, the part of the video recording featuring you delivering your presentation at the event will be removed immediately upon your withdrawal of your consent. The time limit may be extended where personal data constitute, or may be used as, evidence or source of information in pre-trial or other investigations, including investigations conducted by the State Data Protection Inspectorate, as well as in civil, administrative or criminal proceedings or in other cases established by law. Should this be the case, personal data may be stored for as long as is necessary for the purposes of data processing and will be destroyed immediately after becoming unnecessary.

EXERCISE OF DATA
SUBJECT RIGHTS
(What are your rights and how can you exercise them?)

As a data subject, you have the right to apply to the Office of the Seimas regarding the processing of your personal data, i.e. you have the right to the following:

- right to information on data processing (Articles 13 and 14 of the GDPR);
- right to access the data (Article 15 of the GDPR);
- right to rectification of the data (Article 16 of the GDPR);
- right to request erasure of the data ('right to be forgotten') (Article 17 of the GDPR). Note: This right may be exercised provided at least one of the conditions set out in Article 17(1) of the GDPR is fulfilled;
- right to restrict data processing (Article 18 of the GDPR). Note: This right may be exercised provided at least one of the conditions set out in Article 18(1) of the GDPR is fulfilled;
- right to data portability (Article 20 of the GDPR). Note: This right may be exercised provided personal data processing is based on consent and carried out by automated means.

Applications for the exercise of rights must be submitted to the Office of the Seimas in writing, including in electronic format, and must allow for the identification of the applicant and the data subject. The identity of the data subject will be established by means of an identity document or by electronic communications tools allowing for proper identification. An application submitted by e-mail must be electronically signed. Where information about a person is requested by the person's representative, the representative must produce proof of representation.

Regarding the procedure for exercising the rights of data subjects, please contact the Data Protection Officer by using the above contact details.

WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT
(Can you withdraw your consent if data processing is based on consent?)

You may, at any time, withdraw your consent to personal data processing by submitting your request to the Office of the Seimas or the Data Protection Officer using the above contact details.

Upon having withdrawn your consent, the part of the video recording featuring you delivering your presentation at the event will be removed immediately.

SUBMISSION OF COMPLAINTS
(Who can you complain to regarding the action/omission of the Office of the Seimas?)

Please be informed that you are entitled to complain to the State Data Protection Inspectorate and the court over the action/omission of the Office of the Seimas in accordance with the procedure laid down in legal acts, as well as to appeal to court against the action/omission of the State Data Protection Inspectorate.

Before submitting a complaint to the appropriate institution, please contact the Data Protection Officer of the Office of the Seimas by using the above contact details.

DO YOU HAVE TO PROVIDE YOUR DATA?

The provision of data is voluntary.

AUTOMATED
DECISION-MAKING/
PROFILING

Please be informed that your data will not be used for making decisions concerning yourself based on automated data processing, including profiling.

Decision-making by automated means alone refers to decisions that are taken without any human intervention by using technologies based on algorithms. Profiling means evaluation of personal aspects in order to make forecasts, even when no decision is taken, for example, when the Office of the Seimas evaluates personal characteristics (age, sex or nationality) or divides persons into certain categories.
